

BUTTED HIS HEAD.

Against a Cell Door in an Attempt to End His Disappointing Earthly Career.

A FORMER WATCH WORKER

And One of the Most Prosperous and Popular Men in the Shop.

HE TOOK A LONG SPRINT

And Went Head Foremost Into an Iron Door—Had Been Indulging in Excesses and Was Delirious—Doctor Thinks He Will Recover.

Fred Egger almost ended his earthly career at the Workhouse Wednesday morning. Egger has been confined in the institution for a short time. He was suffering from excesses and was allowed to roam about the dormitory upstairs. This morning he became delirious and while the guards were at breakfast he ran a considerable distance and dashed his head against the heavy iron door of a cell. Fellow prisoners called the guard and Milhof was the first to reach the man who lay like one dead, in a pool of blood. Dr. A. V. Smith was called. A ghastly wound, several inches in length, extended across the unfortunate man's head. He was given medical aid and will very likely recover from the effects of his frenzied attempt at self destruction.

Egger is 43 years of age and was one of the most skilled employees of the Duerber works, of which he was one time a superintendent. His salary, when the Duerber-Hampden factories were booming during the few years after their location here, is said to have been almost princely. Egger was one of the swell dressers and hall fellows well met of those interesting times.

BUSY CUPID.

A Consummation of His Marksmanship Occurs at a North Cherry Street Home.

June is the month of weddings. It is Cupid's busy season, and the sound of wedding bells is heard almost continuously. Among the many happy marriages the one celebrated at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Fidelia Field, in North Cherry street, at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening was one of the prettiest, though unostentatious, events occurring in the city for some time past.

The contracting parties were Miss Minnie R. Brady, a former Latin teacher in the city High school and Mr. George H. Alexander, a former Cantonian but now residing in Norwich, Conn. The bride is well known and highly respected and has a host of friends in this city and elsewhere, while the groom is no less esteemed and popular in the city where he resides, and is at present chief clerk of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railway.

The house was nicely decorated and was thrown open to the large number of guests which assembled. The bride was attired in white satin, trimmed with duchess lace and wore the long wedding veil, carrying bridal roses. As Mrs. Broadbeck played the wedding march the couple slowly marched through an aisle formed by four pretty maidens holding white ribbons and took their places under a canopy of smilax and roses where Dr. Harshman, a life long friend of the bride, pronounced the beautiful ring service of the Episcopal church. Later in the evening those present partook of an elaborate wedding supper. The bride and groom then left on a Pennsylvania train for a two week's sojourn at the seaside. They will be at home in Norwich, Conn., after September 1st.

Those present from out of the city were, Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander, Pittsburgh; Mr. Frank Broadbeck, Canal Fulton; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dodge, Akron; Mr. R. Jackson, Akron; Mrs. Phoebe, Mrs. Holcomb, Mogadore; Mrs. Amanda Grodhouse, East Liverpool.

FOUND DEAD.

Summons Came to an Aged Citizen at His Home at Noon.

William Hasler, aged 63 years, was found dead in an outbuilding at his home in East Fourth street at noon Wednesday. The old gentleman had been in apparent good health and death came as a shock to his family. Heart failure was the cause. Deceased was an uncle of Mont and Policeman William Hasler, and leaves the following children: Medames John Studer, Ed Morrow, M. Dubbs and Will Hasler, Jr. Funeral arrangements announced later.

Hundreds of lives saved every year by having Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the house just when it is needed. Cures croup, heals burns, cuts, wounds of every sort.

KIDNEY TROUBLE Is a deceptive disease—thousands have it and don't know it. If you want quick results you can make no mistake by using Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. At druggists in fifty cent and dollar sizes. Sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney trouble. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

DIRECTOR

To be Elected By The Commissioners For the Fairmount Home.

The county commissioners of Stark and Columbiana counties will meet in the near future to elect a director of the Fairmount Children's Home. It was learned this morning that the meeting would probably be held at the home next Friday if it is agreeable to the commissioners of Columbiana to meet at that time. There are several candidates for the position.

ARRANGED THE TAX LEVY.

Rate of Taxation Stark County People Must Pay.

WORKHOUSE FUNDS REDUCED.

Agricultural Society Gets $1,000 of the Money That Formerly Went to the Stark County Penal Institution.

Commissioners Summer, Johnson and Crawford and Auditor Reed, Tuesday, met in the commissioners' office and apportioned the tax levy for Stark county for 1899. The tax levy is practically the same as that of last year, there being a total of but one-tenth of a mill less than the levy for last year.

Under the law passed by the last legislature, a sum not exceeding $1,000 may be collected for the use of the Agricultural society. The commissioners decided to deduct this amount from the taxes collected for the workhouse and agricultural society will therefore have a neat sum to pay incidental expenses, insurance, etc., over this year. There was a discussion during the meeting, Wednesday evening, as to the levy for the workhouse. It was thought that the levy which amounts to $18,000 per annum, was excessive and it was only after considerable debate that the proposition was allowed to remain as it was, with the exception that the $1,000 to be paid the Agricultural society, will hereafter be deducted from the workhouse fund. Following is the proportionment:

County fund.....	1.7 mills
Bridge fund.....	1.3 mills
Poor fund.....	2 mills
Children's Home fund.....	31 mills
Soldier's relief fund.....	25 mills
Workhouse and agricultural.....	4 mills
Interest and debt.....	1.1 mills
Building.....	3 mills
Total.....	5.50

MOTHER AND BABE

Brought to the Infirmary to Relieve Their Unfortunate Condition

Mrs. Rosa C. Yearns, an invalid woman 33 years of age, was brought to the county infirmary Wednesday morning from Alliance on a Pennsylvania train by Superintendent Lichtenwalter. The woman was suffering from paralysis and it was necessary to move her on a stretcher. She is the mother of nine children, the youngest being an infant but six weeks old, and it was brought over with the woman, in charge of a nurse. The woman's husband is at present employed in the rolling mills in Alliance and is an industrious, hardworking man, but his income is small. The circumstances were such that it was thought best to remove the invalid woman to the infirmary in order to provide proper care for the mother and infant.

TOOK A CHILD

To the County Infirmary Because It Could Not Be Taken Care of Here.

Wednesday morning Charles R. Frazer, of the Humane society, took the seven-year-old daughter of Nev Henderson to the Fairmount County Infirmary. It is alleged that Henderson never properly cared for the child and it was considered advisable by the officials that the girl be taken away where she can be properly cared for.

J. J. GRANT NOT NEEDED.

Stark County Republicans Are Expected to Follow Blindly

WHERE HANNA AND COX LEAD.

So Grant Will Not Get the District Attorneyship, But Dick Does Not Know Who Will, for He Promised So Many.

Special to the News-Democrat.

Columbus, June 28.—The old tale of duplicated promises is being repeated in the fight to fill the shoes of United States District Attorney Dodge, the Democratic hold-over in the northern district of Ohio. According to reliable information, the attorneyship has been promised to four different men, each of whom holds Colonel Dick's personal promise of appointment. One promise is known to have been given to a Cleveland through a discovery recently made by one of the other candidates. Though the name of the Cleveland aspirant is unknown, Hon. John J. Sullivan, of Warren, who resigned from the race of the Nineteenth district congressional nomination in favor of Colonel Dick, is another. The other pair are Hon. L. C. Laylin of Norwalk, formerly speaker of the House of representatives, and Hon. M. A. Norris, of Youngstown. George Selber, who was recently nominated for senator in the Alexander district, at one time held Dick's promise for the same place. This accounts in part for Colonel Dick's efforts in his behalf in the recent convention at Painesville.

GRANT, OF CANTON.

James J. Grant, of Canton, also came out for this place, having been encouraged to do so, but of late he has been somewhat ignored. It is said that he had reason to expect the appointment, at the hands of the president, and that Senator Hanna had made him a promise. Col. Dick is now in charge of matters, and the office will be peddled out to the man who can give the best service to the Hanna-Cox this fall. As Stark county Republicans are expected to shut their eyes and swallow the Republican ticket, Cox and all, at one gulp, Mr. Grant is hardly needed to assist in shaping matters in his county, and the plum will fall elsewhere.

ONE WILL BE FOOLED.

At least two men are shaking the tree for the smaller plum of the United States marshalship for the same district. Ex-Mayor George Predore, of Warren, and ex-Sheriff Nicholas, of Medina, are both after the place and both believe they have been promised. One is bound to find the sawdust in his box when he opens it, and a guessing contest as to which it will be. Hon. Joseph E. Blackburn State Food Commissioner, announces that he will not be an active candidate for congress in the Danford district. He will only accept the nomination if all other candidates withdraw and leave him a clear field. Judge I. H. Taylor, of Carrollton, is said to be a candidate for the place, and has a large following. He got out of the way for McKinley some years ago, and some people think the time to reciprocate has arrived.

WANTED A BET.

Dave Walker, brother-in-law of Harry Daugherty, today offered to bet W. F. Burdell, treasurer of the Republican state executive committee, $100 each that each of the five large counties of the state—Hamilton, Cuyahoga, Franklin, Lucas and Montgomery, would go Democratic this fall, take one take all. The offer was refused.

COURT NEWS.

ARGUMENTS MADE.

In court room No. 2 Thursday morning, arguments were being made in the case of W. J. Piero vs The Duerber Watch Case Manufacturing company. The case was heard before Judge Taylor some weeks ago but the arguments were delayed until today. Attorneys A. Lynch and J. C. Given represent the company and A. A. Thayer the plaintiff.

A VERDICT FOR $150.

In the $5,000 damage case of John Whitmore vs. Andrew Rohn and wife, the jury brought in a verdict for $150.

OVERRULED.

Judge McCarty heard a motion for a new trial in the paternity proceedings of Hook vs Maag. The motion was overruled and no new trial will be granted. Maag will be sentenced Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

DIVORCE GRANTED.

Mrs. Irene McKee was, Tuesday morning, granted a divorce from her husband, Edward H. McKee, by Judge McCarty. Attorney Bowman represented the plaintiff and there was no defense. The parties reside in Canton.

Midsummer Communion.

The midsummer communion will be celebrated in the St. Peter's church in Marlboro township, Rev. George F. Chenot, pastor, Sunday, July 2nd, at 10:15 a. m. Services will be held at the church Friday and Saturday evening preceding.

Brought from Warren.

John Mackey was brought to the workhouse Thursday morning from Warren. He was arrested for disturbing the peace and will work out thirty-days sentence.

Aged Missionary Worker.

Captain William Kling, of the Iowa Soldiers Home hospital, is in the city visiting his grandchildren and widowed daughter, Mrs. Myra K. Vandersoll. Captain Kling is 80 years old, and owing to a severe accident last March, he is in a very crippled condition. He has been for 60 years engaged in Christian charitable work, and while in the city will make a house to house canvass along missionary lines.

Death of Mrs. Anna Schad.

Mrs. Anna Schad, of 522 Greenfield avenue, died Thursday morning, of lung trouble, after an illness of six months. Services will be held at the house Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, and the remains will then be shipped to Wooster for burial. The deceased was the wife of Jacob Schad, a well known engineer, and was well known in this city.

CALL ISSUED

For the Democratic State Convention.

Will Be Held on August 29 and 30 According to Official Call—Appointment of Delegates.

Chairman W. S. Thomas, of the state central committee, has issued the following call for the Democratic state convention:

"The Democratic state convention of Ohio will be held in the city of Zanesville, Ohio, on August 29 and 30, 1899, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following state offices:

"Governor, lieutenant governor, judge of the supreme court, member of the board of the board of public works, state treasurer, attorney general and state auditor.

"The basis of representation for delegates and alternates to this convention shall be one delegate for each 500 votes or fraction over 250 cast for Hon. Horace L. Chapman for governor in 1897. All electors who voted for Horace L. Chapman for governor, and all other electors who are now in accord with the Democratic national platform adopted in 1896, are entitled to vote in the election of delegates to this convention.

"All delegates and alternates to this convention, elected after June 16, 1899, shall be chosen in one or the other of the following ways: Either by a direct vote of the people at a general primary or in a delegate convention or by a mass county convention held in the county.

No mass delegations to be admitted, and no delegates or alternates appointed by any committee shall be admitted to the convention except where a county central or executive committee has passed a resolution for such appointment prior to June 15, 1899.

"The counties shall be entitled to the following number of delegates and alternates:

W. H. Crawford, of Massillon, is in the city.

MRS. LUCY GOODWIN

Suffered four years with female troubles. She now writes to Mrs. Pinkham of her complete recovery. Read her letter:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish you to publish what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Sanative Wash and Liver Pills have done for me.

I suffered for four years with womb trouble. My doctor said I had falling of the womb. I also suffered with nervous prostration, faint, all-gone feelings, palpitation of the heart, bearing-down sensation and painful menstruation. I could not stand but a few minutes at a time.

When I commenced taking your medicine I could not sit up half a day, but before I had used half a bottle I was up and helped about my work.

I have taken three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used one package of Sanative Wash, and am cured of all my troubles. I feel like a new woman. I can do all kinds of housework and feel stronger than I ever did in my life. I now weigh 131½ pounds. Before using your medicine I weighed only 108 pounds.

Surely it is the grandest medicine for weak woman that ever was, and my advice to all who are suffering from any female trouble is to try it at once and be well. Your medicine has proven a blessing to me, and I cannot praise it enough.—MRS. LUCY GOODWIN, Holly, W. Va.

You Have a Pain,

maybe in your shoulder, or back or side; at all events you want to get rid of it. Did you ever try

Allcock's POROUS PLASTERS

Do you know that we have hundreds of letters from all parts of the world telling us of the wonderful cures these plasters have made? Do you know that all other so-called porous plasters were started after Allcock's had acquired their enormous sales and world-wide reputation? Do you know that none of them have the medicinal properties of Allcock's? Just put them to your nose and compare the fine aromatic odor of Allcock's with the smell of all others. Don't be deceived—get the genuine article.

JUST OFF THE WIRE.

Special to the News-Democrat.

Washington, June 29.—Mrs. Emma Southworth, the noted author, is reported dying. Her son, Dr. Southworth, has given her up.

Carthage, N. Y., June 29.—W. P. Hering's paper mill, which is located four miles south of here, caught fire today and was totally destroyed. Loss $70,000.

Rennes, France, June 29.—Rumor persists that Dreyfus has arrived here. Mrs. Dreyfus is said to have told a friend that she will see her husband on July 1.

Washington, June 29.—The condition of Mrs. McKinley is improving, but she is still confined to her room. Her physician states that he feels not the slightest alarm concerning her.

Victoria, B. C., June 29.—Passengers on the Glenogle from the Orient say that the young Filipinos in the southern island are busy constructing fortifications. They are well armed and determined not to yield to the Americans.

New York, June 29.—Pierre Lorillard has resigned as president of the Lorillard company, according to a story in the Herald this morning. It is also stated that he is anxious to give up the presidency of the Continental Tobacco company, of which the Lorillard company is a part. Dissension among the officers is said to be the cause.

Brussels, June 12.—The rioting over the government electoral bill continued throughout the city until day-break today. The troops which were called out to quell the disturbance received a shower of stones from the mob. Thereupon they fixed their bayonets and charged the rioters. Several volleys were also fired. Six gendarmes were injured in the fracas. Reinforcements for the troops are expected today.

New York, June 29.—A terrible accident took place today in the German-American building. Mable F. Green, a stenographer, was entering an elevator when it suddenly shot upward. Miss Green was thrown and one-half of her body protruded out of the door. The car rebounded, but she slipped down into the shaft far below. Miss Green was found in the shaft, her flesh torn and her bones crushed. She was removed in a dying condition.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 29.—The National social and political conference was resumed this morning to discuss non-partisan efforts in political reform. Militarism was the special theme introduced by Rev. H. W. Thomas, of Chicago. He applauded Dewey's victory as a military tactics, but denounced the present war in the Philippines as unrighteous and contrary to our constitution and declaration of independence. He is opposed to militarism as tending to despotism.

Washington, June 29.—The scheme to send Cuban soldiers to the Philippines to fight the Filipinos, which leaked from the White House this morning to a Chicago paper, caused a laugh at the war department. While the officials there realized that the president had much at stake in avoiding a call for volunteers in this country, they thought very little of the scheme. The relations between the President and Secretary Alger are strained, and this is said to be the first time that the war department has enjoyed a loud guffaw at the schemes that have come from the President to lick the Filipinos and still hold his job another four years.

Cleveland, June 29.—L. P. Smith, owner of the steamer Marguerite Olivill, has received a message from Toledo saying the steamer is a total loss with the entire crew save one man. The steamer was engaged in the limestone trade between Kelley's Island and Cleveland. It is known her captain's name was Brown, of Cleveland, and she had a Mrs. Baldwin, of Cleveland as a passenger. A Toledo telephone message to the Press states that the Cleveland and Toledo steamer, City of Ohio, has arrived there with the only surviving member of the crew of the steamer Marguerite Olivill, who founded in the gale last night, at Lorain, Ohio. The Olivill crew was composed of about a dozen men.
